Local Government has never been more important. The issues that matter most in the US require local government to perform at the highest level. Managers are increasing catalysts for getting things done. They must work through highly complex multi sector strategies. This environment requires new leadership skills for both the manager and the senior staff. This session will explore the changing landscape of local government and the leadership attributes required to be successful.

Location: The Riley Center for Livable Communities at 176 Lockwood Blvd, Charleston, SC; Hotel next door at the Charleston Marriott, 170 Lockwood Blvd

Cost: $100, includes a welcome reception and lunch

Schedule:

December 13, 2:00 – 5:00pm: Leadership Workshop

5 – 6 pm: Welcome Reception at the Marriott on Lockwood Blvd. Drinks and light hors d’oeuvres provided.

December 14, 9:00am – 2:00pm: Leadership Workshop cont., lunch at 12:00.

To register: Please visit this link.

To reserve your room: Please visit this link. The room rate is $129.00.

If you have any questions, please contact Alison Littke-Smith at ALittke@cofc.edu or 770-639-7487.